

Tarun Ghosh, MSoM

Accredited Mediator specialising in Civil and Commercial, Employment and Workplace, Landlord and Tenant and Special Educational Needs, and Disability mediations

Yorkshire & UK

07982 938449

info@exemplarservices.co.uk

OBJECTIVE

To facilitate a settlement-agreement-reaching process in which the mediator assists participants to reach agreement/settlement in a collaborative, consensual and informed manner. The participants understand that the mediator's objective is to help the participants themselves reaching their most effective agreement. The mediator has an obligation to work on behalf of each party equally and that the mediator cannot render individual legal advice to any party. The mediator can, at their discretion, use their experience and knowledge to explain process and options but will not assess the merits of any course.

Accreditation

Accredited Mediator compliant with Civil Mediation Council Registered training course

Accredited Continuing Professional Development (CPD) compliant with Civil Mediation Council Registered training course

CPD is a combination of learning, study and experience that helps manage growth as a mediator.

Member of the Society of Mediators MSoM and member of SoM's mediator panel MOJ Housing Possessions

Qualifications
Master Business Administration (MBA)

Diploma in Management Studies (DMS)

Certificate in Management Studies (CMS)

EXPERIENCE

Tarun is Managing Director of Exemplar Services England Limited, and through collaborative partnership working a practicing civil and commercial mediator, training commissioner and provider and strategic consultant to a wide variety of businesses where he manages key relationships, change, and training and workforce development.

Tarun works with mediators with different backgrounds and different skills to work together in a complementary way. This is known as co-mediation. Tarun is totally committed to mediation, believing strongly in the mediation process and is committed to growing its profile within the UK. Whether using two mediators or one, the aim is always the same: to guide the settlement process forward to a mutually beneficial conclusion. Mediation should enable all parties to craft their own solution which can be more innovative and flexible than a costly and emotionally draining court process.

Tarun is a specialist in Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, and Inclusion; including to local authorities. A standout mediator with strong experience and expertise in actively listening to the voice of children, young people and parents/carers and putting this at the heart of service priorities and delivery.

Tarun has gained 30 years' experience in a commercial environment and local government environment, including at a very senior level. He is able to cut through to what matters, highly skilled and effective in bringing together people, teams, local area partners and local authority services.

NVQ Level IV in Accounting
(Industry and Commerce)
The Association of Accounting Technicians

Accredited External Adviser
National Professional
Qualification in Headship
(NPQH) and DfEE

Tarun has served in several senior roles within public and private organisations including as Chief Executive Officer to a national and international consultancy. Head of SEND, Inclusion & Commissioning, this included financial stewardship £46m, interim management and public media relationships and regulatory accountability.

REFERENCES

Dominic Collis, MSoM FCMI
Managing Director
Collis Mediation Ltd
6 Marchcote Lane
Bingley
BD16 1TA
Tel: 07715 958 290 Text or Call
Email: info@collismediationltd.com

Claire Kean JP
Panel Director and Mediator
The Society of Mediators
218 Strand, London, WC2R 1AT
DX 232 London Chancery Lane
+44 (0) 207 353 3936
+44 (0) 7956 343 611
